Jordan Van Biert

Jordan unites singers in the common goal of creating rich musical experiences – for themselves, for each other, and for audiences. He founded Chronos Vocal Ensemble in 2013 to pursue excellence in choral performance. Early in his tenure with Chronos, Jordan was nominated as Emerging Artist in Edmonton’s Mayor’s Celebration of the Arts. He also leads the choral organizations Vocal Alchemy and Ante Meridiem, and in 2016 received the Con Spirito award from Choir Alberta, for “spirit, dedication, and commitment to choral music in the Province of Alberta.”

Jordan serves as a workshop leader, adjudicator, juror, and organizational consultant. As an educator he has worked with choirs at Concordia High School, Concordia University of Edmonton, and the University of Alberta. He appears regularly as an ensemble member and soloist with Calgary’s Luminous Voices. Other interests include permaculture gardening, sustainable building practices, and the frustrating game of golf.

Jeremy Spurgeon Organ

British-born Jeremy Spurgeon has won scholarships to study both piano accompaniment and organ at the Royal Northern College of Music, Manchester and later studied organ with Lionel Rogg at the Geneva Conservatoire where he gained the Premier Prix de la Classe de Virtuosité.

In 1980 he came to Edmonton as director of music at All Saints’ Cathedral and has since appeared in concert with many Canadian and international ensembles, singers and instrumentalists, including the Edmonton Symphony Orchestra, Richard Eaton Singers, Pro Coro Canada, Edmonton Metropolitan Chorus, and Edmonton Opera. Jeremy has performed as piano accompanist and organist across Canada and Europe.

For nearly four decades, Jeremy has devoted his talents to building and serving Edmonton’s music community. A versatile performer and dedicated mentor to generations of young musicians, he is also an advocate for classical and church music in Edmonton.

Welcome

The development of the contemporary choral art form involves interaction between elements of both tradition and novelty, and tonight's program exemplifies this. Generation to Generation features sacred music from a 150-year span, and features contemporary choral works that follow in the lineage of some of the earlier music you'll hear.

We are excited to return to All Saints Cathedral, joined by our friend and longtime collaborator Jeremy Spurgeon playing the pipe organ built by the famous organ builders Casavant Frères of Saint-Hyacinthe, Quebec in 1959. We also feature the treble voices of Chronos tonight on several pieces, particularly the enchanting Messe Basse by Faure.

Several pieces on the program were written for significant public occasions, and a number have Royal connections, including the Parry and Britten works. We are also excited to present the Edmonton premiere of James MacMillan's Who Shall Separate Us, commissioned by Queen Elizabeth II and presented at her funeral.

Canadian composers include Stephanie Martin, longtime Music Director of the Church of Saint Mary Magdalene in Toronto. This was for more than forty years the post of Healey Willan, the English-born "Dean of Canadian composers," who was a bridge between the older and newer sound-worlds we present today. Recent Order of Canada appointee Eleanor Daley is also represented, and our own Stuart Beatch, 2019 composition competition winner, whose Psalm 100 will receive an Edmonton premiere tonight.

Tonight we are also excited to release our newest album! Recorded in concert last season, it features new unaccompanied works by Canadian composers. Resolve is both a celebration of Canadian choral music and a testament to the resilience of this ensemble and our organization.

Thank you for being here!

Chronos Vocal Ensemble

Since its founding in 2013, Chronos Vocal Ensemble has gained a national reputation for innovation and excellence. The ensemble has delighted audiences at concerts in Edmonton, on tours in four provinces, and at the conferences of Choir Alberta, Choral Canada and the American Choral Directors' Association. The choir has been recognized both nationally and locally, with the Healey Willan Grand Prize in the National Competition for Canadian Amateur Choirs, and Edmonton's Salute to Excellence.

Collaborators have included the Edmonton Symphony Orchestra, Alberta Baroque Ensemble, Vocal Alchemy, Spiritus Chamber Choir (Calgary), Da Camera Singers and Edmonton Youth Choir. The choir's first three albums are regularly featured on CBC's Choral Concert.

In championing new Canadian choral music, Chronos has given more than a dozen world premieres, and commissioned composers including Andrew Balfour, Marie-Claire Saindon, Matthew Emery, Katerina Gimon, and Nicholas Ryan Kelly. To bring more new works into the Canadian catalogue, the ensemble has offered an annual composition competition since 2017. The choir's fourth album, Resolve, being released this month, features the music of eight Canadian composers.

We acknowledge that Chronos Music Society operates on Treaty 6 territory, a traditional meeting grounds, gathering place, and traveling route to the nêhiyaw/Cree, Dene, Anishinaabe/Saulteaux, Nakota Isga/Nakota Sioux, Niitsitapi/Blackfoot peoples.

We acknowledge all the many First Nations, Métis, and Inuit whose footsteps have marked these lands for centuries.

Stuart Beatch Composer

Stuart Beatch is a Canadian choral composer currently living in Edmonton. He received a Master of Music in Composition from King's College London, studying with composer Rob Keeley, and is currently the composer-in-residence for The Fourth Choir (an LGBT chamber choir in London, UK). Beatch previously studied composition at the University of Alberta and has also received mentorship from Scottish composer Sir James MacMillan and Latvian composer Uģis Prauliņš. While Beatch has a special affinity for the Canadian choral community, his music has frequently been sung by vocal ensembles across North America and Europe, including the BBC Singers, Voces Nordicae, Pro Coro Canada, National Youth Choir of Canada, Luminous Voices, musica intima, Chronos Vocal Ensemble, Spiritus Chamber Choir, Toronto Mendelssohn Choir, Cantabile Chamber Singers, Chorus Austin, and Choral Arts Initiative. He is an Associate Composer with the Canadian Music Centre and a member of the Canadian League of Composers.

Commission Announcement!

We are pleased to announce a newly-commissioned work by composer Nicholas Ryan Kelly! This commission will set texts from Hamilton poet Shannon Brammer's Climbing Shadows, based on the experiences of children. Chronos audiences may remember a first commission with Nicholas inspired by this book of poetry, entitled You Speak Violets, premiered by the choir last May with the composer present. This commission is a joint initiative with Vancouver Cantata Singers (Paula Kremer, Artistic Director), and Chronos's performance will take place as a part of Symbiosis, our final concert of Season Ten.

Tota pulchra es

Tota pulchra es, Maria,	Maria, you are wholly beautiful,
Et macula originalis non est in te.	Original sin is not in you.
Vestimentum tuum candidum quasi nix	Your garments are white as snow;
Et facies tua sicut sol.	and your face is like the sun
Tota pulchra es, Maria,	Maria, you are wholly beautiful,
Tu gloria Jerusalem	You are the glory of Jerusalem,
Tu laetitia Israel	You are the happiness of Israel
Tu honorificentia populi nostri.	You give honour to our people.

Seek him that maketh the seven stars

Text: Amos 5:8, Psalm 139

Seek Him that maketh
the seven stars and Orion,
And turneth the shadow
of death into the morning.

Alleluia,
Yea, the darkness shineth as the day,
the night is light about me.
Amen

Who Shall Separate Us?

Text: From Romans 8

Who shall separate us
from the love of Christ?
Neither death, nor life, nor angels,
nor principalities, nor pow'rs,
nor things present,
nor things to come,
nor height, nor depth,

nor any other creature
shall be able to separate us
from the love of God,
which is in Christ Jesus our Lord.
Alleluia.
Amen.

Jubilate Deo

Text: Psalm 100, Gloria Patri

O be joyful in the Lord,
all ye lands;
Serve the Lord with gladness
and come before his presence with a song.

Be ye sure that the Lord he is God:
It is he that hath made us
and not we ourselves;
We are his people,
and the sheep of his pasture.

O go your way
into his gates with thanksgiving,
And into his courts with praise.

Be thankful unto him
and speak good of his name.
For the Lord is gracious,
His mercy is everlasting;
And his truth endureth
from generation to generation.

Glory be to the Father,
and to the Son,
and to the Holy Ghost.
As it was in the beginning,
is now and ever shall be:
World without end, Amen.

I was glad when they said unto me

Text: From Psalm 122

I was glad when they said unto me
We will go into the house of the Lord.

Our feet shall stand in thy gates,
O Jerusalem.
Jerusalem is builded as a city
that is at unity in itself.

O pray for the peace of Jerusalem,
they shall prosper that love thee.
Peace be within thy walls,
and plenteousness within thy palaces.

Psalm 100

Jubilate Deo, omnis terra;
servite Domino in laetitia.
Introite in conspectu ejus in exultatione.

Scitote quoniam Dominus ipse est Deus;
ipse fecit nos,
et non ipsi nos:
populus ejus,
et oves pascuae ejus.

Introite portas ejus
in confessione; atria ejus in hymnis:
confitemini illi.
Laudate nomen ejus,
quoniam suavis est Dominus:
in aeternum misericordia ejus,
et usque in generationem et generationem
veritas ejus.

*O be joyful in the Lord, all ye lands:
serve the Lord with gladness,
and come before his presence with a song.*

*Be ye sure that the Lord he is God;
it is he that hath made us,
and not we ourselves;
we are his people,
and the sheep of his pasture.*

*O go your way into his gates with thanksgiving, and into his courts with praise;
be thankful unto him,
and speak good of his Name.
For the Lord is gracious,
his mercy is everlasting;
and his truth endureth
from generation to generation.*

Magnificat

Text: Luke 1, Gloria Patri

My soul doth magnify the Lord,
and my spirit hath rejoiced
in God my Saviour.
For he hath regarded the lowliness
of his handmaiden.
For behold, from henceforth all generations shall call me blessed.
For he that is mighty
hath magnified me,
and holy is his Name.
And his mercy is on
them that fear him,
throughout all generations.
He hath showed strength
with his arm;
he hath scattered the proud in the imagination of their hearts.
He hath put down the mighty

from their seat,
and hath exalted the humble
and meek.
He hath filled the hungry
with good things,
and the rich
he hath sent empty away.
He remembering his mercy
hath holpen his servant Israel,
as he promised to our forefathers,
Abraham and his seed, for ever.

Glory be to the Father,
and to the Son,
And to the Holy Ghost;
As it was in the beginning,
is now, and ever shall be,
World without end. Amen.

O Lord, Support Us

Text: Burial Service, Book of Common Prayer

O Lord, support us all the day long
'til the shadows lengthen
and evening comes,
and the busy world is hushed
and the fever of life is over,

and our work is done,
then in thy great mercy
grant us safe lodging
and holy rest, and peace at the last,
through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.
